SPORTS OF THE SEASON.

The Peterman flower Begatta.

There is a more general forcest in tomorrow's regatta thus has been usual in similar events on the Potogran. This ledge in a large measure to the fart that the competing errows have in several instances beneficially expended the several instances beneficially expended to the relationary and on the second of club, and while the winders are excluded in a good deal of club patrioties in worked up over the sealor four and sight-owner races, in which they will face each other.

It will be remembered that the sealor four and sight-owner races, in which they will face each other.

It will be remembered that the sealor four and sight-owner races in which they will face each other.

It will be remembered that the sealor four of the Potomans were entered as junious in the regatta of last year and won that there, and also the sealor four and sight-own. This summer that the beat at once tailed them to be considered one of the foreign without leaving the beat, at once tailed them to be considered one of the foreign makes the face in which they have justlespated. They have always crossed the fine shead, and before the anxiety of the Columbia to real them. Ellis Ward habed the Columbia four in hand and have except and have made no entry for the gig race. however, seems to be somewhat in favor of the Fotomuce, especially in the four-onest race.

In the race for eights the Potomacs have entered the crew which recently was the $1,000 cup at the Staten Island regatts and made very good time. Previous to that the men had never rose of in a race together. On the other hand the Columents eight have never pulled in any race together. It is considered, however, a very fast crew, although composed to a certain extent of untrick men.

Another element of uncertainty is added by the cutry of the Albany men. The latter crew comes from one of the hest amsteurowing clubs in the country, and many of the oracles book the Empire State colors for the first place. The Potomase entered the senior four for the gig race, but have decided not to row in it, on account of the lack of a satisfactory bont. The Columbias have a fast gig but it was thought unwise to row the senior four to more that two races, as to the eight-corad race both of the home clubs will have to face an ontrely fresh crew.

Considerable interest is also taken in the junior four event, for which the Ariela of Ballimore and the Potomace have entered. The fotner crew is said to row in very good form, but the Potomace have entered. In the junior and senior stogles there will be some very pretty sculling, as the entries include Fischer. Feotta, Nolan and others who have already made records. Jack Litter! of the Rappahannocks will have a chacce in the seem of engles. He was barred out of the Alexandría regatte on account of alleged professionalem, and its anxious to have a fair show at the "cracks."

The Albany's Entry.

A member of the Regata Committee gave a Chiric reporter this morning the facts in regard to the supposed entry of the Albany eight-cared crew. It seems that the committee received a letter some time ago from the Fenneyivania Railroad stating that arrancements had been made to convey the shell of the Albany crew from New York to this city. On the strength of this it was supposed that there was no doubt of the formal entry of the crew, and it was so published.

A few days later a letter was received formal entry of the crew, and it was so published. A few days later a letter was received from the Albany Rowing Club stating that there was some difficulty with the West Shore Railroad in regard to the transportation of their boat to New York. Nothing further has been received, and as the time for making a formal entry elapsed Saturday, the Albany men cannot participate in the regains if they do come, but there is no prospect of their putting in an appearance. Regains Notes.

Buffinton had not pitched in any games for some time and his arm was rusty, consequently he was rather with. Clements suved him several wild pitches.

AT THE THEATRES.

THE NATIONAL-"BRACON LIGHTS,"
The ambience at the National last night was elightly top-heavy, and the thrillingly peroic speeches with which "Beacon Lights" was eligibly top-beavy, and the thrillingly berole specebes with which "Beacon Lights" abounds arose as most acceptable incesse to the gods. The play belongs to a type which must be put on with more than usual excellence to be popular with the best class of theatre goers, and the warm appreciation it met with from the lower portions of the incess was sufficient to stamp it as a meritorious production. The story is one of border life and gives a most interesting picture of a Western mining camp, where every man is his own policeman and there is no recognized law against carrying concealed weapons. Mr. George Learnest is a careful and capable actor. As Phil Gordon he is graceful and plessing. T. J. Herndon does an admirable plece of character acting as Cabact Liou (allowe, the Southern gentleman, with the strictest ideas of the laws of chivalry and hospitality. Miss Gracie Emmett, as Carrie Calhonn, is a rollecting intie soubrette, who is bound to make friends with the suidence.

a. Latout's—"The Latrice Tycoon,"

ALBAUGH'S-"THE LITTLE TYCOON."
"The Little Tycoon" has been burlesqued y the minstrels, performed on the parlor daro, whistled by the small boy until the public is quite familiar with it, and it seems ofaro, whistled by the small boy until the public is quite familiar with ft, and it seems to improve on acquaintance. The applause accorded to Bob Graham as General Kauder-backer throughout the performance demonstrated his popularity. His song, "Cawn't Do It, You Know," was encored with a generality which became almost embarrassing. New verses have been added, and it is, if possible, more catchy than ever. Elma Dolaro as Miss Hurricane added much to the enjoyment of the performance by her vivacity. Miss Dolaro is not only a clever siths, but quite handsome, although on a large scale—ponderously pretty, to be alliterative. The singing of R. N. Duobar deserved the commendation is received. The chorus its strong, and the performance throughout sof a kind well calculated to please the popular faucy. The opera, as is well known, owes its success more to its stage settings and other accessories than the intrinsic merit either of its score or its dialogue.

THE BIJOU—"ACROSS THE CONTINENT."
"Across the Continent" was presented to good houses at the Bijou yesterday. The play has evidently lost none of its popularity, notwithstanding the length of time it has been before the public. The company now at the Bijou succeeds in winning much applause, the specialities introduced being received with particular favor. The play is mounted in a complete and handsome manner.

The Australian Novelty Company opened at Kernan's yesterday. This attraction was presented to the public a short time ago at the Hijou and played to excellent business. The strong features of the show have therefore lost any charm of novelty, although they were well received, nevertheless.
